

MUCH INTEREST AROUSED BY PUBLICATION OF BABIES

Entered in the Telegram's Circulation Campaign, Show-er of Gold for Babies.

NEW NOMINEES ARE LISTED

Nomination Period Still in Effect but Early Beginners Have Best Opportunity.

Considerable interest was aroused by the publication Saturday of the initial list of babies entered in the Clarksburg Telegram's "SHOWER OF GOLD" for babies. Parents and friends of children have been calling at campaign headquarters since last Tuesday when the announcement that $1,600 in gold would be distributed among the babies, and enrolling their little ones or those of friends. Quite a number of parents called Saturday afternoon to have their babies enrolled in the first publication but some of them were too late for that and are entered in the list today.

In the list of entries there are few if any sections of this part of the state that are not represented. The nomination period is still in effect and will not be closed for some time to come. In fact, it will not be too late to enter at any time as long as the campaign lasts, but the babies entering early will have the advantage by beginning early in the race and will have the best opportunity to win one of the bigger gold prizes.

Each baby in the race starts off with 1,000 votes, the number allowed on each nomination. No baby is allowed more than one nomination ballot, but they may receive as many of the twenty-five vote coupons as parents and friends may obtain for them.

It is well for the supporters of each baby to start to clip the coupons and ask their neighbors and friends for their subscription payments before some one else solicits them.

Quite a number of coupons have been sent to this office already but they will not be credited until the next publication of the list of the babies.

The great race for Gold and Glory, inaugurated by the Telegram for the babies of Clarksburg and vicinity, is just beginning and you can win one of the magnificent prizes for your baby if you will clip the nomination coupon, send it to the SHOWER OF GOLD department of the Clarksburg Telegram, and let us explain to you the complete details of this great undertaking.

Wouldn't that $500 make a splendid bank account for your baby?

Wouldn't you like to start your baby in life with a sum of money sufficient to make his or her future a certainty?

Certainly you would! Would you accept, in behalf of your baby, a share of the $1,600 in gold to be given away by the Clarksburg Telegram. You don't have to spend a penny to enter and win a prize for your dimpled darling. Capitalize your spare time and declare a handsome dividend at the end of "The Shower of Gold for Babies."

Sudden Shriek of Fire Whistle Fatal To Man

TOMAH, Wis., Sept. 11.—Colonel George Graham, 74 years old, was literally startled to death here by the sudden shriek of a whistle. When the whistle of the concern, which is used to herald fires at that plant, was sounded. After the blaze had been put out, the aged man was found sitting upright in his chair. The sudden shriek of the whistle, according to physicians, was too much for his weak heart.

QUEER PRANK

Lightning Bolt Flashes in One Window of Home and Out the Other.

SPRING GROVE, Pa., Sept. 11.—Lightning recently played one of the queerest pranks ever recorded in this locality. An unusually severe electrical storm passed over this place, the lightning flashing incessantly. Mrs. Annie Young, near here, was alone in a lower room of the house with two of the windows open, when a blinding flash zigzagged in one of the windows and out the other, killing the family cat perched on a fence twenty feet distant. Mrs. Young was badly frightened, but not injured, and says there wasn't much left of the cat, as the bolt flew in every direction when the bolt struck the unlucky pussy.

WIRE FRAME

In Stenographer's Hat Saves Her from Being Killed by Falling Hammer.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 11.—A wire frame in her hat saved the life of Miss Millie B. Wehrle, 20 years old, a stenographer in the records of deeds office, when a machinist's hammer fell from a four story building on Washington avenue and struck her on the head. Miss Wehrle was taken to the state hospital suffering a severe scalp wound.

She was on her way to the court house when the roof repairer let the hammer drop. Physicians say the wire in the woman's hat saved her from a fractured skull and perhaps instant death.

FINDS HER SON

Advertises That He is Heir to Big Estate and He Comes Home.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 11.—Frequent dreams that her boy, who was taken from her while she was ill in the General hospital in 1900, was not dead caused Mrs. A. E. Evans of this city to continue a search for him during the last fifteen years.

Advertising brought no results, until recently, when she stated in an advertisement that a big estate was coming to the son, Harry Gordon, from her father.

Then a woman came to see Mrs. Evans and told her that while she was an attendant at an orphan boys' home in 1906, Harry Gordon was sent to live with Thomas R. Cain, a farmer near Jacksonville, Ill. A letter to the chief of police there brought a communication from Cain that Harry always had believed his mother to be dead.

Then Mrs. Evans announced that the supposed estate was a myth.

"I advertised that there was an estate merely to see if I could not get results—and I did," she said. "I simply want to see Harry."

Snake is A Thief Of Time

Farmer's Missing Watch Rolls from Protruding Lump in Reptile's Stomach.

SUNBURY, Pa., Sept. 11.—Over heated while cutting wood on his farm at Kline's Grove, near here the other day, Charles R. Johnson, a well known farmer, took off his vest and hung it on a low sapling. His watch chain dangled near the ground. Having occasion to go into the house, he stayed a few minutes.

Returning, he put on his vest and looked for his watch, but it was missing. Blaming the theft on a tramp, he went into the house to tell his wife of it and when he returned he found a huge black snake and killed it. A suspicious lump protruded from its stomach, and cutting the snake open, he saw the watch roll out, undamaged.

Johnson has the snake nailed to his barn. It being six feet, four inches in length.
